Dear Elves Mr. Claus, or Mrs. Claus,

Hello! My name is Taylor. I hope this gets to you on time. I am here telling you that there are many people in need this year, and that you don't need to stuff my stocking this time. But you do need to come to my house because my brother Corey, my mom, and my dad deserve something for putting up with me. (And I am going to make cookies and milk for you too.) I also am going to put something for your quinder buddies, so what is their favorite food? I want one thing for Christmas, though. Please bring all the toys you made extra for me and give them to people who need them and deserve them. Anyway, I have been naughty, I really deserve it or need it. Even better! Give it to homeless people. They need it. If you can, just give me some gummy bears or a cherry candy cane. I'll save up for the rest. Give Corey extra origami paper, and he needs jeans without holes. This list also has a X-box 360, but that's too much money. I want you to know, that I also went on the news today and it said that there was a parent by the name of Ruth and she needed clothes.

I hope that helps you with the naughty and nice list. Everyone here in Bedford NH has been nice except me. You know that because of the elves probably. I have a few questions for you: 1. Where do you live?
The North Pole?

2. How can the elves make toys if they are so small? Do they make miniature tools? 3. What is your favorite food?

4. Why do people say you are fat?

5. What is your favorite color?

6. Do you have any toys?

7. What school did you go to when you were my age? (I'm in 4th grade)

8. Do you have any children?

9. You are very nice to deliver toys around the world. How did you get the idea to do this?

10. How did you get the nickname Santa?
And, do you get Christmas presents yourself?
I wish you the merriest Christmas of all!

Fondly,

Taylor Lee
